JACKSON HOLE BROKERAGE

The small town of Auburn is located near the Wyoming-Idaho border, approximately 20 miles south of Alpine. The old Rock Church, one of the oldest buildings in Star Valley, now stands as a symbol of the strengths and values of the original pioneer farming and ranching families who lived in the community in the late 1800s. It is now listed on the National Register of Historic Places and is currently used as a melodrama theatre in summer months.

Butch Cassidy and his cohorts wintered near Auburn in 1896, as large snowfalls made this area a safe haven to “hole up.”
